

THE EXETER INN

From HayCreek  Hotels.com

Welcome

A wedding at the historic Exeter Inn is elegant yet unexpected, classic with a dash of contemporary style, immaculately planned with plenty of room for improvisation and spontaneity. Celebrate your special occasion with an unforgettable gathering of family and friends at our charming 1930's boutique hotel.

Let our graceful Georgian façade be the backdrop for your special day. Celebrate in the lush courtyard surrounded by natural greenery, or plan your grand entrance through the great hall with expansive archways and original pane glass windows.

Enjoy the experience of our award-winning menus with the option to customize for any taste, traditions, and budget. Every special detail and request are directed by a personal wedding consultant and professionally executed by the expert culinary team, and banquet support staff.

Ceremonies and Receptions

Ceremony Sites -

The Gazebo

Gather around the romantic garden gazebo, with a backdrop of evergreens, while friends and family witness the exchanging of vows from white wooden chairs that line a naturally green isle.

Great Hall

For intimate ceremonies consider the sophisticated tradition of the Great Hall. Descend the stairs to an isle lined with expansive archways and original pane glass French doors.

Reception Sites-

Patio Grounds

Start the celebration in our courtyard on the stone patio, with butler passed hors d'oeuvres, stationary displays, and cocktails.

Garden Reception

Capture an elegant celebration under a traditional sailcloth tent, surrounded by the original brick façade, garden, and evergreens of the Inn's courtyard.

Daniel Webster Room

Be introduced for the first time in this one-of-a-kind ballroom. The 1930's chandeliers and flawless woodwork craftsmanship details leave ample flexibility for personalized decorations and décor.

Why Couples Choose Us

Couple Reviews:

“The Exeter Inn was an absolute dream to work with! We chose this location for our October wedding because the setting was ideal and the food was outstanding. We didn’t want a “cookie cutter” approach to our menu and the chef and staff of The Exeter Inn delivered a foodie’s dream; everything from the hors d’oeuvres during cocktail hour to the plated meals was delicious, our guests were raving. We paid a very reasonable amount for the location and our wedding consultant was very flexible in letting us use any and all spaces we needed. I emailed with her constantly to iron out details and she was always very responsive and never made me feel like I was being a pain. Total bonus, her time and dedication to our event was at no extra cost, she even frosted our cupcakes we had shipped from out of state. Everyone at The Exeter Inn was helpful, kind and went out of their way to make you feel like #1. I would recommend this venue to anyone looking for an intimate, classic New England wedding venue that your guests won’t soon forget.” – Amanda

"We couldn't have been happier with our wedding at the Exeter Inn. Everything was absolutely perfect. We were a little nervous at first because we were planning from across the country, but from the moment we first talked to our wedding consultant at the Inn, who is downright magical, all of our anxiety went away and we knew things were going to be great. They were able to accommodate our every request, and any time we thought we'd missed something we'd find out wedding consultant had taken care of it for us." – Matty

Everything was better than expected at the Exeter Inn. Our wedding consultant was wonderfully accommodating and quite frankly was an overall amazing person. She was in touch the perfect amount for us. Not overbearing by any means but never letting anything slip or slide out of place. Once the rehearsal day came, it was spot on and everything was better than expected as I mentioned earlier. My entire family loved the inn and the town and were very surprised at how we were able to get such a nice place. Would recommend this to all my friends who are getting married as it was just a wonderful place to be. - Michael
